BRETT LEE
FOUNDER,
INESS
INESS creator
Brett Lee worked as a Police Officer for 22 years, 16 of those as a Detective in the field of Child Exploitation. In his last five years of service, he was a specialist in the field of undercover internet child exploitation investigations. Brett has been personally involved in the online investigation, arrest and prosecution of numerous offenders, whose medium for preying on children is the internet.

Brett now runs INESS, (Internet Education and Safety Services). INESS programs are to equip children, teenagers and adults with the skills and knowledge necessary to enable them to use the internet safely, creating awareness of rights and responsibilities in a digital world through unique and engaging presentations targeting empowerment, awareness and self-esteem.

Undercover internet detective Brett Lee spent thousands of hours as a fictitious child on the internet which now creates a powerful and unique credibility with the audience that is essential and unprecedented. INESS programs give audience members a reason to make sound online choices and develop positive online behaviours.

OSCAR YILDIZ
Oscar Yildiz JP has a wealth of experience in a number of sectors and organisations, juggles life as Moreland City Council Councillor, CEO of Bully Zero Australia Foundation, Justice of the Peace, husband and father of two young girls. Oscar is a passionate advocate against bullying and worked tirelessly in 2012 to coordinate a group of motivated individuals to establish the Bully Zero Australia Foundation. Having experienced bullying for 7 years in Murray Bridge SA as a youngster, Oscar knows what it feels like and has an incredible ability to empathise with victims and families.

Oscar was touched by the suicides of young individuals who were cyber bullied and he developed many relationships with affected families, in particular Ali and Dina Halkic after the passing of their son, Allem Halkic. With their support and that of the Foundation’s board members, he has developed an anti bullying organisation like no other; Bully Zero is now the fastest growing charity in Australia. It was a mother who pleaded with Oscar to bring her daughter back that sparked him and 9 other passionate individuals into action; they said “Enough is enough!”

Glendal Primary School invites you to a parent forum

Are your children Cybersafe?

Would you let your children play on a freeway?

Yet, they are on the Cyber Freeway right now! It’s fun, fast and full of unknown hazards. And you thought they were just playing in their bedroom.

Delivered by professional speakers on the topic of Cybersafety and Cyberbullying. You will be presented with engaging and powerful information in a way that will bring to life possible online dangers and responsibilities which are a part of your child’s digital world. Strategies of protection will empower you, reducing online risks and develop positive online behaviours. You will be amazed how simple this can be.
