

RACHELLE GREER '97

THEN & NOW

WHAT HAS SHE BEEN UP TO?

Rachelle has since completed a Bachelor of Arts (majoring in French & Anthropology) and a Graduate Diploma in Human Resources Management at Monash University.

Rachelle's work history includes experience in various industries including Retail, FMCG, Manufacturing, Media, the Legal industry, Education and Financial Services. She has worked for numerous companies including Village Roadshow, Ernst & Young, JB Hi-Fi, BIC, Arnold Bloch Leibler and Carey Baptist Grammar School in Acquisitions, Human Resources and Consulting positions.

We are also very thankful for Rachelle's involvement in our alumni program. Last year, she returned to speak to the Year 9 students about her post-school pathway and career development. Staff, students and alumni were very lucky to receive a Koko Black voucher/chocolates as part of her visit. This year, Rachelle provided a work experience opportunity for a very lucky Year 10 student.

WHERE IS SHE NOW?

She is now the Head of Human Resources for Koko Black Chocolate and draws from her experiences and learning at school, university and working life, to offer Koko Black people a great place to grow their career, Caption: Rachelle with Koko Black team members Zara (left) and Isobel (right) at their newest store: Melbourne Town Hall. It is one of their most successful stores to date.

Something you might not know about her

As a child, she spent five years growing up in Nouméa, New Caledonia and speaks fluent French.